How to install Videoredo TVSuite serial number: Today: %: VideoReDo TVSuite.Cambodia, Thailand, Vietnam and Malaysia has been added as new destinations in the world of landings for the Blue Sea Swim. The three-year-old event, which attracts over 120,000 fans to the shores of Mexico's Laguna Madre each April, is bringing foreign swimmers to Vietnam, Cambodia and Thailand for the first time, and Malaysia is the fifth country to join. This year's competition, which is being held in Vietnam from 10-14 April, will consist of three separate events. In the men's race, 12 people will compete for 1,000,000 VND (U$49) worth of cash prizes.

Swimmers from Taiwan, China, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom and the USA are confirmed to compete, with more nationalities yet to be added. The Blue Sea Swim has proven popular over the years, with the majority of its competitors being European, Japanese, Chinese and Korean nationals. However, this year is the first where the number of international competitors has increased, and with more than half of competitors not representing the same home nation, it shows a global trend in swimming events. According to organisers, 15 nationals from countries such as The Netherlands, Israel and Kazakhstan have already registered to compete. Fingers crossed that this is just the start for future international competitors!
