Book of Muslimthe hadith of the prophet salih to the most high prophet Mohammad As readers know, the ghazali movement was a reaction against the iraq wars, and other issues, against the manichean and darwinian ideas that found entry into the muslim faith and the west in the time of colonialism. The continued rejection of the world and will of Allah (swt) is the hallmark of the darwinian world view of the west, and the ideology of mushrik parallel. the rejection of the world, sense of self, will and judgement of Allah (swt), these are the birth pains and child in a muslim's self. Islam was declared a religion of mercy. however, the darwinian world view associated with the mushrik parallel has completely reversed this, in fact the entire western society is becoming, according to some, an islamic society.

in other words, a theocratic society. in this manner, the 'hijab" is seen as a sensible protection against an islamic society, and boys and girls are required to wear a hijab in western islamic society. the women wear a hijab, but many of the women in the west are covered head to foot with thattaken from the burka. at the same time, in muslim societies, the burka is seen as a sensible protection against the west. . The following letter was published in the New York Times on January 31, 2015. Dear Mr. Brodsky, Now that the Islamic State group has cut the heads off two American aid workers and a British man in cold blood, can the 1.8 billion Muslims in the world's largest Muslim nation - which has about 80 million Sunni Muslims and 10 million Shia Muslims -- rise up and bring down their common enemy, the radical Sunni group Islamic State? That was the unanimous response at a meeting of about 150 leading Muslim intellectuals this month in Lahore, the capital of Punjab province and Pakistan's most populous, diverse and multilingual province. The meeting, sponsored by the Council of Islamic Ideology, a top state watchdog, was aimed at brainstorming ways to use religious values to tackle extremism and terrorism, which have killed over 40,000 people since 9/11, according to independent observers and the United Nations. Shahid Siddiqui, the president of the Council of Islamic Ideology, said in an interview after the meeting:

Salih Saleh (PBUH), the messenger of God, had been sent to every nation once, for guidance, and provision.
Every nation was blessed by his recital of the Holy Qur'aan. He once said: "O people of the earth, my (re)mission is to call each of you to `tisil (true religion):
"Whoever does good shall have it doubled unto him, and whoever does evil, well, God sees." I call you to `tisil (true religion) as it was the religion that is best." He then handed all the nations and nations to God. He performed his `Adhooor (call) openly and strongly. He was a good leader who stood firm on what he believed. He said that he had been sent to call the Muslims and non-Muslims together to form the ummah (community) of `ulama (scholars), since he was a descendant of the Prophet Muhammad. Since the establishment of the ummah (community), Salih Saleh led numerous conquests and battles with the help of `Adhooor. Many great military commanders came to him asking for battle. He was a great warrior who fought for truth and for the rights of truth. He was called to fight in the Holy land (Madinah, with his son Salih) and fought for many generations with great valour and honour.

Some of the battles in which he took part are listed below:

1. Battle of `Aqba
2. Battle of Badr
3. Battle of Khaybar
4. Battle of Uhud
5. Battle of Muharram
6. Conquest of Makkah
7. Conquest of Madinah
8. Conquest of Syria and Palestine
9. Conquest of all the Arabian Peninsula
10. Conquest of Yemen and Oman
11. Conquest of Iraq
12. Conquest of Khybar
